

VOICE OF THE PEOPLE

CUBA'S RIGHTS

Northfield, Feb. 3.—An deeply troubled over a news report that an American air force plane and its crew crashed in Iran. This country borders on the Soviet Union.
 The presence of American military personnel is justified by an agreement with Iran to afford her military support against any aggression from across her border by the Soviet Union. If this is recognized as her right as a sovereign state, is not Cuba also within her rights in seeking Soviet arms to protect herself against aggression engineered by the CIA? NORMAN FREED
